

Ministry of Land, Water and Resource Stewardship

Ministry Overview May 25 2022

Prepared for the Northeast Roundtable

Change Management Process

February 2022 Throne Speech Jan 2021-Apr 2022 Ministry Secretariat Engagement

April 2022 Recommendation Implementation

Implementation

Commitment of new ministry to oversee better stewardship and management of B.C.'s lands and resources Significant participation from natural resource ministries, in consultation with First Nations and stakeholders.

Build a new vision for land and resource management with First Nations Implement the Honourable Minister Josie Osborne's Mandate in partnership with Indigenous partners and Natural Resource Ministries, engagement with industry, stakeholders and the public

Honourable Minister Josie Osborne's Mandate

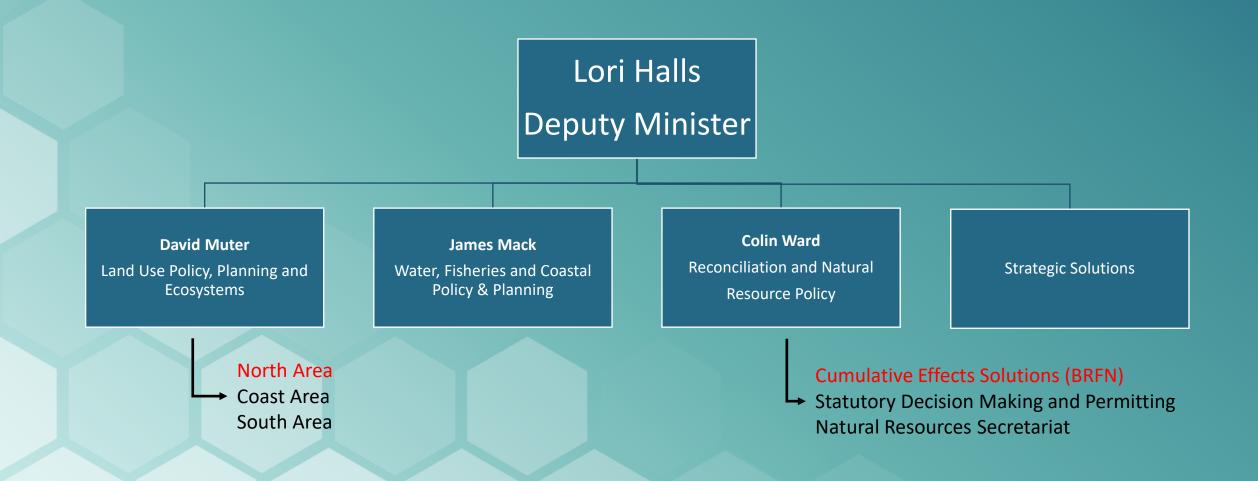

Items to Progress:

- Co-managed land and resource management regime with Indigenous partners
- Manage for cumulative effects
- Modernize Land Use Planning
- Source to Tap and Watershed Security Strategies, Watershed Security Fund and other water policies
- Together for Wildlife Strategy, protection of species at risk and enhance biodiversity
- Development and implementation of the Coastal Marine Strategy and Wild Salmon Strategies and Salmon Restoration and Innovation Fund
- Implement recommendations of the Old Growth Strategic Review

Land, Water, and Resource Stewardship

Peace Region

- Modernizing land use planning
- Cumulative Effects and its associated framework to support decision making
- Caribou Recovery Program
- Together for Wildlife
- Species at Risk
- Ecosystems Restoration
- Prescribed Fire
- Provincial Old Growth Strategic Review

Thank you!

Questions?